

From: Walter Paul Bebirian
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/15/02 2:51am
Subject: MICROSOFT SETTLEMENT

> Since this and most other "antitrust" cases are > compared to Standard Oil - I would recommend that > the > Standard Oil case be looked at from the perspective > of > what was done and just how we as a country are > fairing > because of that break-up - It seems that no one - > not > one of the states or the government is taking into > consideration that since the beginning of this > "case"
> that the economy is the real injured party every > step > of the way and because this is so, every citizen in > this country is being negatively effected - My > suggestion is that every single person whether they > are in or out of Microsoft - does not really > appreciate the negative effect of this "action > against" Microsoft - For one brief second - let us > imagine that there is no Microsoft and that there > never was one - how much progress along any lines > whether with computers - handhelds - or Internet - > would we have made - and if you think that Netscape > is > innocent - I propose that the investigation truns > right around and looks very deeply at the fact that > Netscape was not only behind this whole case - but > that Hearst Publications - a most powerful and > controlling Private Business - has been behind > Netscape from the beginning - So - let us take a > quantum leap and figure that 20 years down the road
> -
> Microsoft is diminished to a small player in both
> the > operating system category and the browser category - > so what - how will that have benefited me - I use a > Power Mac which runs on an Apple OS 9 system - > (nothing to do with Microsoft) but let me tell you > one > thing - there is no comparison between the Netscape > and Explorer Browsers - the Netscape is no where > near > as good - efficient - easy to use or fast as the > Explorer - so let's be truthful - cut out all the > double talk and admit that Microsoft is where it is > at > because it belongs there - and so I don't agree with > the Mocreosoft Company having to pay any penalty or > to > be judged against because it is the thruth that > there > has been no investigation as to exactly why any on > has > complained about Microsoft and done anything but > made > a better OS - and if they haven't it is most > probably > the case because given the hardware they have to > work > with - they can't - so from that perspective - > let's > all sit down - make a better machine and then figure > out how to make a better OS from the beginning of

> the > next generation -
>
> And my dear Department of Justice - friends - if you > don't think that I know what I am talking about - > that's just fine with me - since anyone who really
> has
> the capabilty of designing what I mentioned above > will > always be a thousand steps ahead of your thinking!
>
> Walter Paul Bebirian
>
>
> =====

<http://www.575488trillion.com>

=====

<http://www.575488trillion.com>

Do You Yahoo!?

Send FREE video emails in Yahoo! Mail!

<http://promo.yahoo.com/videomail/>